AGENDA HIGHLIGHTS

As Germany's non-bank lending market continues its significant growth, Private Debt Investor returns with the 5th PDI Germany Forum, an event uniquely serving the robust community of German LPs and their mounting investment allocations to private credit.

High-level Networking Meet the Masters

Join a variety of structured and un-structured networking sessions designed to provide optimum opportunities for your firm to meet the right people. Networking receptions, a LP breakfast, and a variety of structured discussions allow you to mix with your peers and prospective investors.

Regulatory Updates A New Perspective on Brexit

After years of speculation and anxiety, a team of Brexit experts shed light on how the new political landscape in Europe is viewed from Germany, and the impact it will have on private debt as an asset class.

Critical Perspectives

LP Wish Lists

Local investors in the German-speaking region disclose their priorities, preferences and concerns about private debt globally in an in-depth, candid discussion on the opening of the asset class.

Hot Topic Panels

New Frontiers in Age-Old Markets

While Germany and the surrounding countries house an abundance of strong businesses, private debt firms have historically not been a large provider of SME financing. Due to regulatory dynamics, local entrepreneurs are increasingly opening their doors to alternative lenders.

Rigorous Debate

Pick your Poison

Share your firm's expertise by joining lively, interactive roundtable sessions on focused topic areas including: benchmarking 101, making sense of asset allocation, how to fundraise in Germany, deal sourcing and borrower terms.

Detailed Case Studies

Under the Hood

Managers and entrepreneurs share their real-life stories of private debt financings and partnerships in the Mittelstand. Contact the PDI team to submit your investment for consideration.

Keynote speaker

Jurij Puth | Managing Director | GSO Capital Partners

Leading the DACH region for global private debt titan, GSO Capital Partners, the debt arm of The Blackstone Group, Jurij Puth talks candidly about the institutionalisation of the asset class, how it has evolved in recent years and dynamics between the middle and large-cap market today. Based in Frankfurt and leading GSO's origination and execution efforts, Puth delivers a hyper-local perspective rooted in a wider global context on strategies from direct lending, to secondary trading and distressed investing.

Valuable networking opportunities

Build your firm's exposure and place yourself at the forefront of this critical group of investors managing billions of Euros.

Interactive workshops and round-table discussions to share and reflect upon all the key issues within the asset class. Gain insight into the best lending opportunities in the German-speaking region and beyond.

Cocktail and networking reception at the end of the first day to establish business connections in a relaxed and informal atmosphere.

Investor networking breakfast a closed-door, invite-only discussion over croissants and coffee to compare ideas on private debt as an evolving sector, manager selection and allocating to a crowded industry.

“The perfect forum in which to learn how investors, investment managers and my peers are tackling the many macroeconomic, investment, legal & regulatory issues facing the markets today.”
