Co-hosted by

“For GPs that don’t do anything on climate, I’m not sure we’ll be investing with them in the future”*

Bertrand Millot, CDPQ

Join us to discover how you can drive value from your business through responsible investment initiatives.

Whilst ESG has grown incrementally due to demands from institutional investors, fund managers are increasingly seeing how implementing ESG can add tangible value. Connect and discuss ESG trends and strategies across private markets.

Agenda highlights

Focus on climate risk

Including a keynote speech from Dr. Emily Shuckburgh, fund manager and institutional investor panel discussions, and several other sessions addressing the climate emergency.

Closed-door breakfast

Invitation only LP and GP breakfast briefings provide an informal environment to discuss best practice with your industry peers.

ESG due diligence: deal or no deal

Highlighting the growing role of ESG in due diligence, in this session GPs will present a case study on a potential investment where there are some underlying ESG concerns.

Impact investment and the industry

Several sessions focused on impact investment and measuring impact. A keynote panel discussion on why private equity firms are launching impact strategies, as well as an afternoon stream looking at different areas of this growing space.

The PEI Responsible Investment Forum is our number one go to event for learning, sharing and networking around ESG”

Anna Follér, Sustainability Manager, AP6

Incorporating ESG case study from AP6

Unique case study featuring the Head of ESG and Investment Director from AP6 as they discuss the role of ESG in their investment decisions. With ESG increasingly impacting investments, this discussion will offer useful takeaways for investors and fund managers in the room.

Focused streams on other asset classes

A series of discussions aimed at investors in infrastructure, private equity and private debt to reflect growing interest in ESG across private markets.

Addressing energy transition concerns and ESG

This fireside chat featuring Adam Black from Collier Capital and Christopher Springham from LM Wind Power will look at some of the environmental and social issues related to technologies involved with the energy transition.

Who's paving the way for diversity initiatives?

This unique session will feature three case study presentations highlighting how private equity firms have addressed diversity initiatives and next steps.
