Hong Kong Summit 2019

Renewable Energy Forum

Hong Kong 2019

12 November 2019

In a brand new venue, the Forum offers opportunities to network with an international delegation focused on global renewable energy markets. With industry leaders together in one place, this is your best chance of the year to connect with the biggest players and take advantage of the once-in-a-lifetime investment opportunities available across the sector.

Asia Forum

Hong Kong 2019

13-14 November 2019

The annual Hong Kong Summit is the must-attend meeting place for the industry's most influential practitioners: from institutional investors and fund managers, the advisory and service provider community who serve them, to developers and energy companies. This is your opportunity to showcase your unique value to the Asian investor community searching for infrastructure investments worldwide.

Infrastructure Debt Forum

Hong Kong 2019

14 November 2019

Led by powerhouse Japanese and Korean institutional investors, global infrastructure debt is on the rise within Asia's largest LPs. The gathering will bring together senior, junior and mezzanine providers with global investors, issuers and developers to discuss developments in debt funds, banking capital and deal flow, while networking with the infrastructure funds and investors committing capital to debt projects now.
