KEYNOTE

WHY ATTEND?

Suzanne Tavill
Global Head of Responsible Investing;
Managing Director
StepStone Group

Ms. Tavill is the global head of responsible investing, leading all ESG initiatives across all businesses and investment strategies at StepStone Group, a global private markets specialist overseeing more than $280B of private capital allocations, including over $58B of assets under management. StepStone offers customized private markets investment management and advisory services to institutional clients using industry leading analytics and research capabilities, with a focus on providing highly responsive and collaborative client service.

Connect with the leaders in ESG

Network with 200+ institutional investors, fund managers and associations to discuss why, when, and how your firm should be implementing an effective ESG strategy. This year's Forum features two networking think tank breakfasts and five dedicated breakout sessions.

Kickstart your ESG program

Backed by PEI's editorial team, the Forum stays at the forefront of covering the growth of ESG in North American private equity. Join us to access this exclusive content.

"PEI's Responsible Investment Forum brought together an impressive collection of the world's leading thinkers and practitioners on considering ESG factors in private equity investing."

Georges Dyer,
Intentional Endowments Network
