The role of the private fund CFO and COO is rapidly evolving to encompass regulatory challenges, operational excellence, human capital and technological advances.

The inaugural CFOs & COOs Europe forum will address all of these key issues by bringing together in-house financial and operational professionals from across the four alternative asset classes - private equity, private debt, infrastructure and real estate.

Join us at the forum to hear best practice and industry developments from this wide spectrum of private market experts, and ensure that you're on the right path for evolution.
