

Matt Diestel is an Investment Director and investment committee member within QIC's Global Private Capital group where he is responsible for North American buyouts, venture capital & growth, and co-investments. Prior to joining QIC, Matt was an Investment Officer within the private equity group at CalSTRS where he focused on middle-market buyout, co-investment, and credit-related opportunities. Before joining CalSTRS, Matt worked at UBS and Morgan Stanley.