Keynote Speech: Building a career as a dealmaker in private equity

Cheryl Potter spent two decades at Permira leading the Global Consumer Team and the London office. She also served on the firm's Executive Committee and the Compensation and Partnership Committee. Whilst the number of women in private markets has grown since Cheryl joined Permira in 1999, there is still a long way to go with only 10% of women working in Senior Investment roles. Investment teams still look overwhelmingly male and private equity still struggles to retain talented women. This keynote speech will consider how PE can get more women onto their investment teams (and crucially retain them), what Level 20 is doing to help & learnings from a career spent in the deal team
