Asia's leading infrastructure fundraising conferences

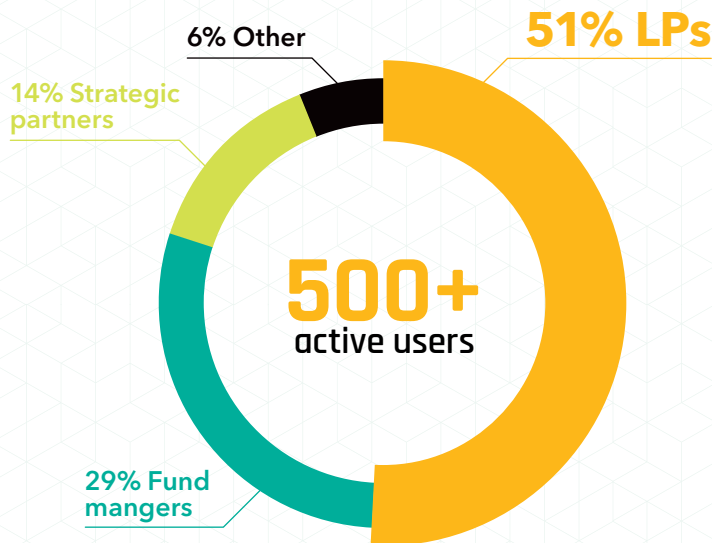

The Infrastructure Investor Japan Korea Week Virtual Experience successfully connected global infrastructure leaders to secure capital allocations from Japanese and Korean LPs on 7-11 September 2020.

Through a series of networking programmes, panel sessions and presentations, the 3rd annual Infrastructure Investor Seoul Summit and the 6th annual Infrastructure Investor Tokyo Summit allowed leaders to effectively progress their capital allocations, fundraising and investment strategies despite the industry's most testing conditions in history.

PEI continues to drive value for the infrastructure investor marketplace in providing a fulfilling virtual experience with insightful content from top industry experts along with significant networking capabilities for attendees.

Key insights from the week on Infrastructure Investor

Three key takeaways from our Japan Korea Week

Valuations, new GP relationships and the energy transition's uneven global progress were some of the main issues discussed by attendees last week.

II Seoul: Lotte weighs up infra debt commitment to BlackRock, Schroders

The Korean insurer says debt is generally preferable to equity investments and a lack of face-to-face due diligence makes commitments to GPs unlikely without an existing relationship.
