2023 event highlights

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude for all esteemed speakers and attendees for joining the 3rd annual PDI APAC Forum in Singapore.

This year, we were back in-person with an impressive attendance of 230+ institutional investors, family offices, advisory firms, banks and fund managers from the APAC region.

With the spotlight on the rise of Asian markets, the surplus interest in emerging sectors, and the evolving investor demands around private debt markets, the conference brought us new insight to where the region is heading in the medium-long term.

The PDI APAC Forum is an exclusive opportunity to connect key decision makers and private debt funds across the Asia-Pacific region. The Forum will continue to be the meeting place providing valuable in-depth market discussions and unrivalled networking opportunities.

Our team at Private Debt Investor look forward to welcoming you again at our future events.

Warm regards,

Niann Lai
