Key highlights from the APAC Forum

The second annual Private Debt Investor APAC Forum successfully took place in person in Singapore and virtually on 13 April 2022. The hybrid Forum attracted former CIOs from ERS and POBA, 35+ esteemed speakers and 100+ in person and online attendees, including Asia-Pacific institutional investors, fund managers, banks and private credit advisors.

The Forum highlighted the potential for Asia's private credit markets is pushing to new heights. Our distinguished speakers discussed opportunities across Asia markets, including mainstream versus specialty strategies, emerging markets and covenants in debt products under global uncertainty.

“It was very uplifting seeing everyone in person after quite a bit of a hiatus. A diverse set of views revolving Private Debt in Asia were covered by great panelists, which is hard to find at a single forum.”
