The conference provided a good learning and networking opportunity. From a LP perspective, we are constantly engaged with several GPs and this was a convenient way to also “catch up” on their market views, while meeting the senior folks in a well attended and organized setting.

Vaibhav Kalia

VP, Senior PM & Head of Fixed Income
Selective Insurance

What is unique about the forum?

Unlock new opportunities for your firm by networking with institutional investors who share your goals and interests.

Ensure you are at the forefront of the latest trends affecting your investments by hearing industry experts discuss forecasts and opportunities.

Get exclusive information about which private debt allocation strategies other firms are using to generate returns.

Take away valuable ideas from industry leaders about how to differentiate your firm in the highly competitive market.

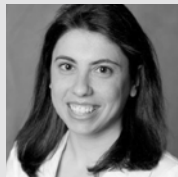

Find solutions to your biggest challenges by brainstorming with your peers during think tanks and roundtable discussions.
