A woman with blonde hair, wearing a patterned top, is smiling and speaking at a podium. The background is dark with a bright light beam. The image is partially covered by a large purple circle on the right side.

The longest-running private equity forum focused on bringing together fund managers, institutional investors, and expert advisors to discuss ESG issues across alternative asset classes will return to London on 8-9 November.

Discover the latest financial regulations and gain valuable insight from industry leaders to build a lasting sustainable portfolio heading into 2024.
