Sessions not to be missed

The state of play in the North American infrastructure market

- Surviving testing times through resilient infrastructure portfolios and sectoral growth
- An Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA) update - what are we seeing flowing down from the package and where's the money going?
- The impact of the Inflation Reduction Act - doubling down on tax credits and the impact on the acceleration of US renewables
- How IRA tax exemptions and tax credits have shifted investment outcomes and created new categories of interest for investors
