Agenda highlights

Gain insights on the direction of the impact investing market

Institutional investor outlook: what is driving allocation to impact funds for different types of LPs?

- » What are the allocation priorities of institutional investors in 2024 and beyond?
- » How are allocators filtering managers?
- » Does the impact label, article 8 or 9 classification, SDG reference, or thematic positioning matter in the investment decision?
- » Is the sophistication of impact products sufficient to meet the needs and risk appetite of investors?

Investing in the transition: how to achieve impact at scale

- » What role are impact funds playing in overall decarbonisation efforts globally?
- » What strategies, technologies and innovations have the greatest 'impact at scale' potential?
- » Have middle-market growth-stage opportunities been overlooked by private market investors?
- » Is it time to also be considering climate resilience and adaptation investing?

Beyond venture and growth - deep dive into the impact buyout playbook

- » What is the impact market's composition in terms of funds looking at venture, growth and buyout strategies?
- » In what geographies and themes are buyout opportunities most present?
- » What are the unique considerations at play when investing in more mature companies?
- » What are some good examples of buyout strategies with clear impact stories?
